Oral & Maxillofacial pathology consultation services:

If you are seeking a second opinion from our expert oral pathologists, you do not have to visit our laboratory. You can still receive our opinion by sending us the available data (clinical image, radiographic image, consultation request) along with representative microscopic images for the case or even a virtual slide.

To provide us with the required data, please use the request form below. We will reply within a week from sending us your request.
