-Intern Faculty of Oral & Dental Medicine, Cairo University, Cairo.	1/9/1983- 1/10/1984

Achievements -Master Thesis in Oral Pathology titled "The Effect of Malnutrition on the Antibacterial Components of Saliva and the Development of Dental Caries in Rats."

-PhD Thesis in Oral Pathology titled "Cytokeratin as a Diagnostic Marker in the Differentiation Between Lesions of Epithelial Origin: an Immunohistochemical Study."

-Diagnosis of cases sent from other departments is my main task as an Oral Pathologist and is my way in participation in community service.

-Participated in the teaching of the course of Oral Pathology to undergraduate, master degree, higher dental diploma and doctor degree students and candidates

-Constructed a course in Immunohistochemistry (Principles, Technology and Applications) to doctor degree candidates in Oral Pathology.

-Supervised several Master Degree (MDS), Doctor of Dental Surgery (DDS) and Ph.D thesis in many dental fields: 4 MDS in Oral Pathology, 3 MDS in Oral Surgery, 3 MDS in Orthodontics, 1 MDS in Pedodontics, 2 PhD in Oral Pathology, 2 DDS in Endodontics, 1 DDS in Oral Surgery, 1 DDS in Oral Medicine and Periodontics, 1 DDS in Orthodontics

-Participated in the Discussion Panel (Oral Pathology) of 4 Master Degree theses: one in Cairo, two in Alexandria and one in Azhar University; and two PhD thesis in Cairo University.

-Part-time Professor in the Department of Oral Pathology, School of Dentistry, Minia University during the academic year of 2005-2006

-Part-time Professor in the Department of Oral Pathology, School of Dentistry, Modern Sciences and Arts University (MSA) in 6th of October City during the academic year 2006-2007.

-Attended and presented oral and/or poster presentations in conferences in Egypt and Internationally:

1- In Egypt: Conferences of the Egyptian Dental Association, Conferences of the Clinical Society for Oral Surgeons, 5th and 6th National Cancer Conference, the 1st and 2nd Annual International Congress of the Medical Division at the National Research Center; 10th International Dental Congress, Cairo, Marriott Hotel, held on 6-9 November 2001; 5th Annual Conference, Continuing Education Centre, Cairo Univ., held on Dec. 2, 1999; 6th Conference, Continuing Education Centre, Cairo Univ., held on Feb. 15, 2001; 11th Zagazig Dental Conference, April 2-3, 2009

2- Internationally: 4th International Orthodontic Congress, San Francisco, California, May 12-17, 1995; 72nd European Orthodontic Congress, Brighton, England, July 2-5, 1996; 6th International Dental Meeting in University of Aleppo, Syria 28-30 April, 2009; 2nd World Congress of the International Academic of Oral Oncology, 8-11 July 2009, Toronto, Canada

-Active member of the Quality Assurance and Accreditation Unit in the Faculty of Oral & Dental Medicine, Cairo University. Participated in workshop with the Unit (how to prepare intended learning outcomes for a course and student assessment)

-Co-director of the Continuing Education Unit in the Faculty of Oral & Dental Medicine, Cairo University from 2006 -2007.

-Director of the Research Facility Unit in the Faculty of Oral & Dental Medicine, Cairo University since November 2007- 2008.

-Attended several courses and workshops in major fields such as immunology and immunohistochemistry from the National Institute of Research in Cairo and National Institute of Cancer in Cairo (immunoelectron microscopy), electron microscopy (scanning from Faculty of Science in Cairo University and transmission from Ain Shams Special Hospital Unit), gene isolation (PCR) from Ain Shams Faculty of Science and internal quality assurance project (how to prepare program, course specification and course report) from Faculty of Medicine Cairo University Kasr El-Aini; Health Professional Education (assessment, time management, teaching methodology) from Department of Medical Education, Faculty of Medicine, Suez Canal University; NAQAAE workshops on Quality Assurance and how to present self study at MSA University.
